bushgifts cards: the perfect present for the eco-minded Bush Heritage launches new range of gift cards supporting conservation

Looking for a meaningful Christmas gift with a great feel-good factor?

Bush Heritage Australia has launched a new range of gift cards featuring beautiful photography of our magnificent Australian native species, the perfect present for the eco-conscious in your life.

Prices range from a $15 bushgift to protect native Featherflowers at our Eurardy Reserve in Western Australia, up to a $200 bushgift to fund revegetation at our Boolcoomatta Reserve in South Australia's Arid Rangelands.

Bush Heritage Chief Executive Gerard O'Neill said the new gift cards are an alternative to gifts made from non-recyclable material or with high air-miles.

"Each bushgift supports Bush Heritage's work on the ground; be that managing fire, invasive weeds and destructive feral animals planting trees to restore native woodland and habitats for birds and critters, or protecting our vulnerable native plants and animals," he said.

"Buying a bushgift means you are making a very real difference to the health of the Australian bush."

You can support projects such as:

- $15 to protect Featherflowers at Eurardy Reserve in WA
- $20 to provide habitat and nesting sites for the endangered Tasmanian subspecies of the Wedge-tailed Eagle
- $30 to protect Western Pygmy Possums in WA

- $50 to fund Bush Heritage's conservation activities on Cravens Peak and Ethabuka reserves in Queensland, and on Charles Darwin, Hamelin and Eurardy reserves in WA
- $75 to provide a sanctuary for the threatened Stuart Mill Spider-orchid in Victoria
- $100 to support the Martu people's work to save the Greater Bilby in the Birriliburu Indigenous Protected Area of WA
- $150 to help the Olkola people of Cape York protect their totem species Alwal, the Golden-shouldered Parrot
- $200 to fund conservation work at Boolcoomatta Reserve in SA where Bush Heritage is hoping to bring back Yellow-footed Rock Wallabies to the landscape
- $250 for a six-card bushgift bundle to support conservation work across Australia. The bundle includes: Featherflowers, Western Pygmy Possum, Stuart Mill Spider-orchid, Greater Bilby, Golden-shouldered Parrot and Boolcoomatta cards.

Bushgifts come in either print or e-card options. You can also buy a bundle of six cards for $250, with a retail value of $570.

All cards and envelopes are printed on recycled paper stock and come with information about the species location and habitat.
